Dedication

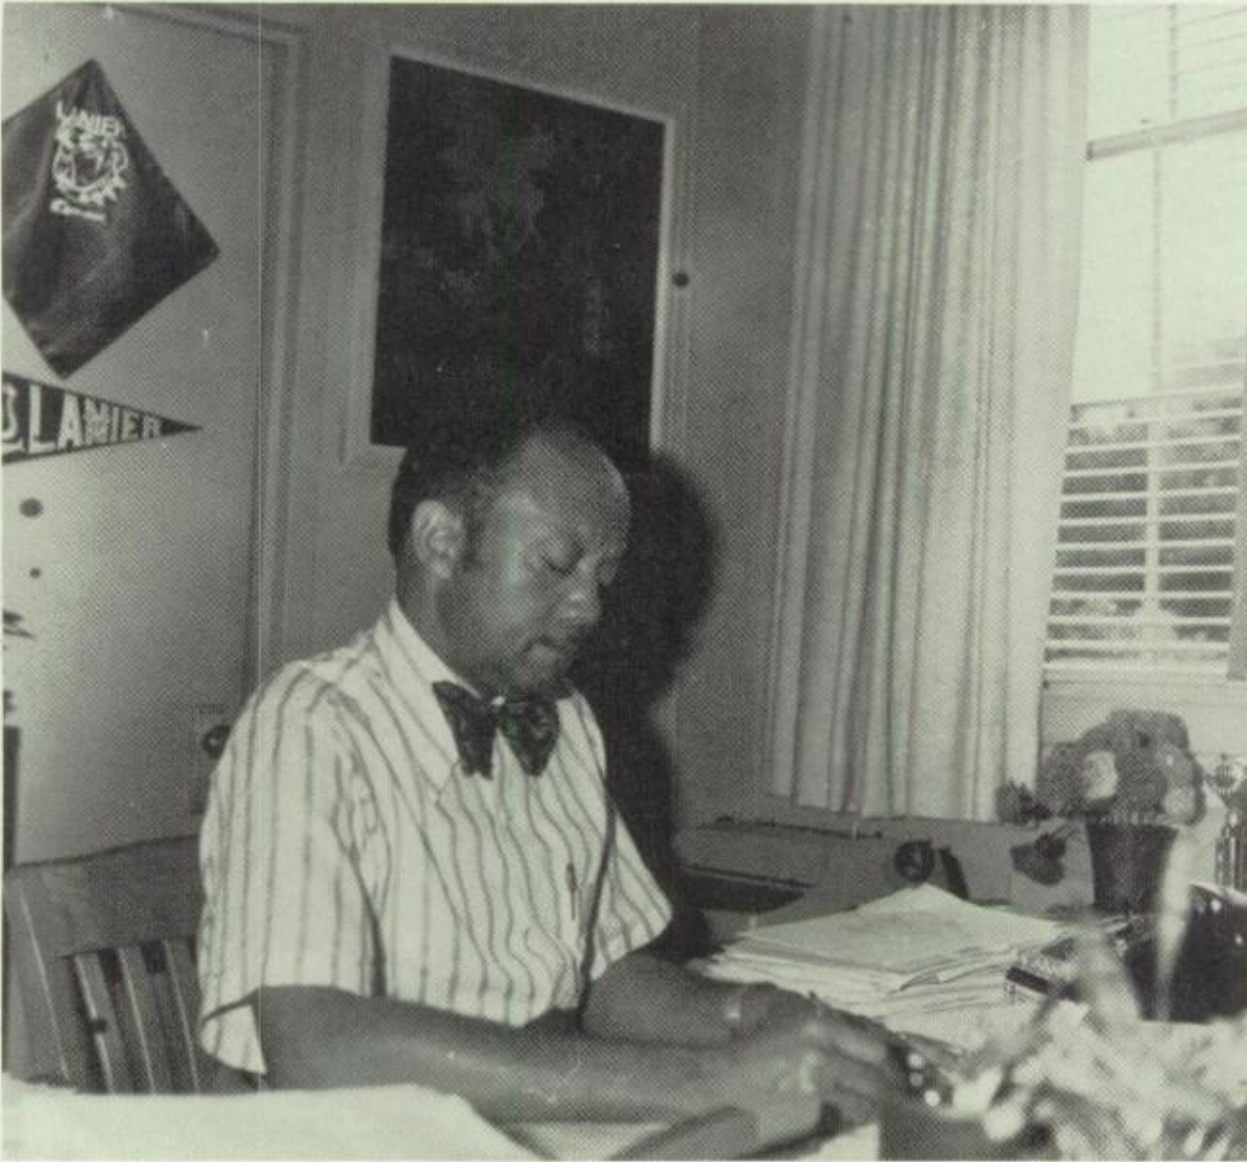

Many times you will find a man, a teacher, who is totally unique. We at Lanier feel that we have such a man. The students see him as spirited, cheerful, and yet very sophisticated. These are fine qualities to be possessed by any man, but when you find a man who refuses to be cast as a stereotype, when you find a man who dares to be different, then the possession of these qualities makes that man all the more unique. Seeing these things in a teacher lets a student know that the man is a really together person; someone that he can not only talk to, but also relate to.

His colleagues see him as calm, yet feeling and sensitive to the needs and desires of his associates. He is one of those few focal points through which both students and teachers find lanes for communication and understanding. To him dedication is the thing. His involvement and enthusiasm, not only in the classroom but in all areas of school activities are an open display of the school spirit that Lanier strives to maintain.

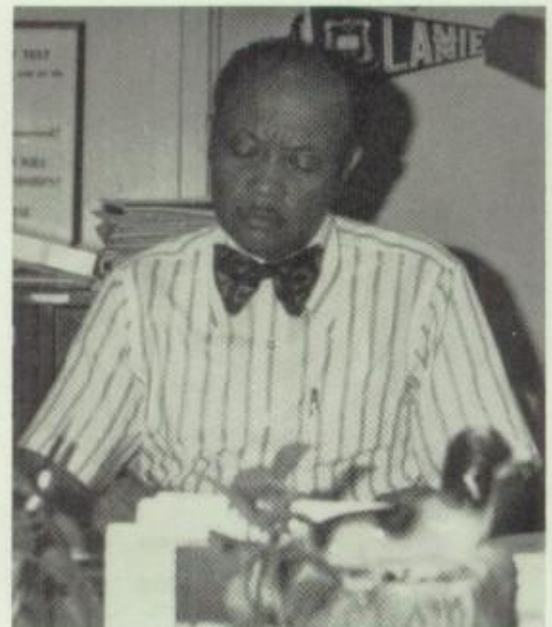

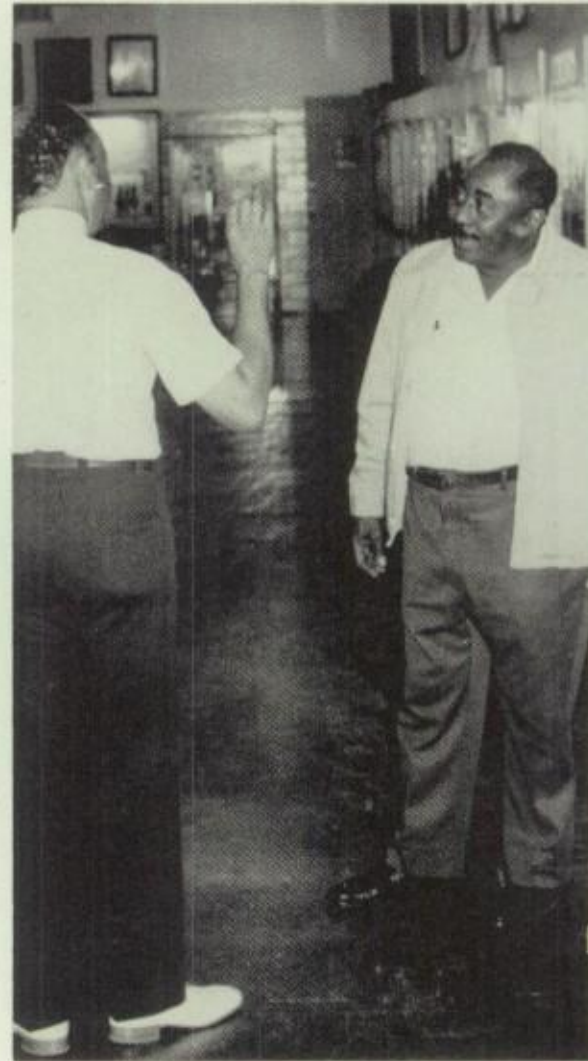

We of the Maroon and White Annual Staff would like to commend this particular man on keeping with the spirit of "movin' on up." To show our boundless gratitude, we dedicate the 1974-1975 Maroon and White to MR. HARRY LEWIS, JR.

Administration

PRINCIPAL - L. B. Buckley

As head administrator of our school, Mr. Buckley is a very busy man. His job is to make sure all phases of school activities function smoothly. His ready interest in the students and all activities at Lanier keep him alert and on the go. Guiding young people to a better way of life is a goal Mr. Buckley never forgets. The annual staff salutes Mr. Buckley whose understanding, dedication, and sincerity help keep Lanier "movin' on up."

Assistant Principal - Will R. Anderson

Our assistant principal, Mr. Will R. Anderson, helps in guiding and counseling the students and faculty at Lanier. He is always ready to assist the principal in all tasks and endeavors that require his attention. Having a source of never tiring energy, Mr. Anderson is a proficient servant to the school. He is always ready to help move Lanier a little higher.

Mrs. Bessie R. Johnson

Mrs. Sarah Dyess

Counselors Guide the Way

Mrs. Johnson goes over student schedules with Mrs. Smith.

Helping the students to recognize their abilities and guiding the students in making decisions for the future are among the duties of the Lanier counselors. Their rewards include Graduation Day along with wise occupational and college choices. The constant endeavors of the counselors keep the processes of sophomores "movin in," juniors "movin through," and seniors "movin out" flowing smoothly.

Mrs. Dyess aids a student in selection of courses.

Retiree Honored

Mrs. Ernestine Gipson was the first black counselor in the Jackson Public Schools, and she worked in that capacity at Lanier High School for twenty-four years. During her years of dedicated service to the students of Lanier, she won the respect and love of all who worked with her.

One of the many ways Mrs. Gipson shows her love for young people is by always telling them to "be somebody."

Alumnus of the Year

Mr. Emmitt Hayes, a member of Lanier's graduating class of 1940, was hailed "Alumnus of the Year" at Lanier's annual Alumnus Day Program. He serves as principal of Jim Hill High School, a position he has held for the past six years.

Outstanding alumni, such as Mr. Emmitt Hayes, are definite proof that Lanier is "movin on up."

The Sun is up, it's time to go . . .

We set our goals and dream our dreams
since life is so far off it seems . . .

Together we work, together
we play.
We live together as youth of today.

Missing classes and getting behind, making decisions and changing our minds.

But we grow on losing and winning,
and on and on sniffing
and grinning . . .

We grow on, like an apple
ripening under the sun, blushing and blushing until its quick youth is done.
